Stewardship is a conversion journey of receiving God's love and returning love to Him. A conversion requires prayer, reflection and time to allow God to show us who we are, and the person of love that we can become.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Today as we celebrate Palm Sunday we enter the most solemn week of the Church Year – the final, intense days of Lent and the great days of the Triduum. This week, called holy by our ancestors, calls us to focus our attention and energy on the observance of the Paschal Mystery.

The Triduum: The first thing to recognize about the Triduum is that it means – The Three Days. The Triduum is a unified observance that extends over three days, and forms its own unique and central part of the liturgical year. Lent ends on Holy Thursday afternoon. The Triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper and concludes on Easter Sunday evening.

The Church is called to enter into a period of prayer, fasting and vigilance, which reaches its climax at the Easter Vigil. The principal liturgies even suggest the unity of the Triduum by the way they end and begin. On Thursday, there is no dismissal or conclusion; on Friday we gather and leave with no introductory or concluding rites; and at the Vigil we gather around a fire and begin without the usual introductory rites. In a sense we begin the liturgy on Thursday and don't conclude until after the Vigil, with Easter Sunday as a kind of extension of the celebration of the Vigil.

These days are the central movement around which all else revolves. The Triduum gives meaning to Lent, which precedes it, and to the Fifty Days of Easter that follow. As the Lent-Easter cycle is the core of the year, so the Triduum is the core of Lent-Easter. These days are central because they draw us into the heart of our identity as church. The paschal mystery of Jesus' death and resurrection is the core of our faith and our participation in the mystery through the celebration of baptism defines what it means to be Christian and what it means for the community to be church. This year Holy Thursday and Good Friday services will be celebrated at Our Lady of the Lake, King Ferry, and the Easter Vigil will be celebrated at St. Patrick Church, Aurora. I encourage you and your families to participate in these sacred days of prayer.

May you have a blessed Holy Week. Father Bill

CRS Rice Bowl An Invitation to Journey Through Lent with Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl SHARING GOD'S LOVE As we walk with Jesus through Holy week, we call to mind the countless children, women and men who even today carry heavy crosses: crosses of hunger, homelessness, poverty, lack of security. In these brothers and sisters we encounter Jesus as he walks that long road to Calvary. This week is also a time to reflect on Saint Paul's words to the Philippians: Jesus emptied himself for us.

How might we empty ourselves for others?

Our Lenten prayer, fasting, almsgiving have prepared us to continue to wrestle with this question.

Holy Thursday you can bring your donation for this year's Rice Bowl project as an offering or return it to the church during the Easter Season. A separate basket will be in the churches for your Rice Bowl donations. If you make out a check for your donation, please make it out to G.S.C.C. and write CRS Rice Bowl on the memo line.

Good Friday Collection Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Through the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land as a witness of peace, supporting Catholics there in parishes and schools, maintaining Christian shrines.

A Year of Prayer

Faith Formation
LIFELONG AND ONGOING

The final doxology, "For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever," takes up again, by inclusion, the first three petitions to our Father: the glorification of his name, the coming of his reign, and the power of his saving will. But these prayers are now proclaimed as adoration and thanksgiving, as in the liturgy of heaven. The ruler of this world has mendaciously attributed to himself the three titles of kingship, power, and glory. Christ, the Lord, restores them to his Father and our Father, until he hands over the kingdom to him when the mystery of salvation will be brought to its completion and God will be all in all. J

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph Pray for Us!

Building Strong Catholic Families Palm Sunday, also called Passion Sunday, marks the beginning of Holy Week. During this week, we prepare ourselves for Easter by prayerful reflection upon the events of Jesus' passion and death. During this week, your family might display a crucifix in a prominent place as reminder of salvation Christ won for us. This can also serve as the focal point for family prayer during Holy Week. Families can make it a tradition to read a portion of this Sunday's Gospel each day of Holy Week, providing ample opportunity for children to ask questions and respond to the events described there. In this way, the entire week can become a "way of the cross." Each day during Holy Week, the family can gather in a prayerful space with a crucifix as its focal point and read a portion of the Passion Narrative from Luke 22: 14-23:56
